All the Knights being inſtalled, the Great Maſter returned to his Stall; where, making his Reverences, he ſat down: The Dean was conducted to the Altar by the Uſher; the Sanctus being ſung at the ſame Time, the Officers returned to their Seats, and Divine Service began with TE DEUM; during which the Knights placed their Hats and Feathers on the Cuſhions before them.

Upon the Sentence of the Offertory, Let your Light ſo ſhine, &c. The Knight then redeemed it of the Dean, who reſtored it with the proper Admonition, according to the Oath they had taken; which done, they returned under their Banners; and the Coronation Anthem, GOD SAVE THE KING, being ſung;

A Proceſſion was then made back to the Prince's Chamber, in the ſame Order it came from thence, except that the Prebendaries had Leave to retire to the Jeruſalem Chamber from the Abbey Door; and that the Eſquires, and Officers of Arms, and Officers of the Order, when they came out of the Church, were allowed to be covered. Without the Door of the Abbey, the King's Maſter Cook made the uſual Admonition to each Companion.

And, at the Door of the Prince's Chamber, a Perſon was appointed by Bath King of Arms, to receive the Mantles from the Proxies.
